

Microbiome Symposium

A spotlight on multidisciplinary research into microbiome in health and disease - from the bench to bedside. Join us for an overview on leading international and national research into preclinical, engineering and clinical applications and the future directions and benefits of understanding the role of the microbiome in health.

Thursday, 13th April, 2017 @ 9.00am to 1.30pm

9.30-10.30 - Session 1

Microbial interactions in disease

GUEST PRESENTERS:

Fabienne Mackay, Tor Savidge,
Gabrielle Belz, Ashley Franks,
Len Harrison and Aaron Jex
(FINISHING WITH A PANEL DISCUSSION)

11.00-12.00 - Session 2

Interpreting dysbiosis

GUEST PRESENTERS:

Kat Holt, Seth Masters,
Charles Mackay, Danilla Grando
and Dieter Bulach
(FINISHING WITH A PANEL DISCUSSION)

12.30-1.30 - Session 3

Microbes, memory and brain health

GUEST PRESENTERS:

Sammy Bedoui, Elisa Hill
Margaret Morris, Amy Loughman
and Fabienne Mackay
(FINISHING WITH A PANEL DISCUSSION)

Kenneth Myer Auditorium

Ground Floor

Melbourne Brain Centre

Kenneth Myer Building, 30 Royal Parade,
The University of Melbourne Parkville

Enter from Royal Parade entrance then turn right in foyer towards the door to the Auditorium.

